Area of Expertise

Mitch Owen is the Director of Project Management with Citadel Partners, LLC, where he ensures each project is successfully executed in an organized manner.

Business & Educational Background

Mitch graduated from the University of Texas at Austin in 1976 with a BBA in finance.

He has more than 38 years of diverse experience in the real estate development and construction industry in Dallas, Texas.

Throughout his many years in real estate, Mitch has gained a thorough knowledge of construction methods, procedures, estimating, contracting and scheduling. He has served as both general contractor and construction manager, interfacing with major construction companies, architectural firms and property management companies in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex area.

Prior to joining Citadel Partners, Mitch served as Vice President of Fults Realty from 1989 to 1998 where he was responsible for construction management activities for the entire firm, representing building ownerships, property management and tenant rep brokers. From 1998 to 2013, he served as Founder and President of Tri-Tex Construction. In this role, Mitch built Tri-Tex into a $20 million a year general contracting company averaging more than 300 tenant finish projects per year. Mitch and his team worked in virtually every major office building in Dallas during those years with key owners and management/leasing firms. Tri-Tex specialized in Class A office, retail, industrial and medical build-outs.
